

Press Kit

Short Description

Data2CRM is an automated CRM migration service which allows to transport data across different CRM applications. It is the tool of choice for newbies and experienced developers who wish to perform migration with ease and free of hassles. The following are the currently supported entities that can be imported with the help of Data2CRM automated CRM migration service: users, products, projects, emails, communication history, notes, countries and more.

Long Description

From time to time there's a necessity to move your current CRM system to a more progressive one to have a 360-degree view of every customer information and therefore to enable your business to increase productivity and efficiency. Data2CRM automated CRM migration service has been specifically developed to perform conversions across different CRM applications completely hands-off.

The tool takes its respectful place among world's top-popular migration solutions that help to perform the migration process without business disruption and end-user confusion. No matter you are a newbie or an experienced developer – Data2CRM automated CRM migration service is exactly the solution you need to switch your current CRM to a desired one. The service currently supports the transporting of the following data: accounts, leads, contacts, opportunities, tasks, etc.

Leadership Team

Ruslan Savchyshyn
Founder

Anatoliy Denys
CEO

Max Orlovsky
Project Manager

Quick Facts:

Home Page: <http://www.data2crm.com/migration>
Headquarters: Ternopil, Ukraine
In Business Since: 2014
Number of Customers: growing fast
Target Market: business owners, enterprise vendors, marketing managers
Status: Privately held

Media Contact:

For any media questions please contact:
Anatoliy Denys
1-800-224-1462
business@magneticone.com

Logos:

Logo Data2CRM.Migration Black 250×53

Logo Data2CRM.Migration White 250×53